

RESIDENZFÖRDERUNG – REGULATIONS

Please note! This is a translation of the valid regulations and is meant only to help in the orientation and understanding of those, for whom German is not a first language. Only the regulations in the original German version apply. There is no guarantee for the correctness and completeness of any translated information.

Basic Information on the Application Process

01. The Residenzförderung is aimed at nationally noteworthy independent performing artists and curators of the independent performing arts, as well as, in a separate program section, graduates of state and state-recognized art schools of the independent performing arts. Funding is available for projects without any determined outcome such as research, laboratories and conceptual development, also for the field of digitalization and the performing arts, as well as for all activities aimed at the further development of artistic work and that will take place in a residency, at/or in connection with a residency location listed under item 05.

02. The grant of € 5,000 will be awarded on a personal basis over the course of two consecutive months.

03. Applicants must have demonstrably worked in significant artistic or curatorial positions in publicly funded performing arts projects in the last three years or, alternatively, provide evidence of their transnational or international guest performance or production activities in their self-directed artistic work.

04. Natural persons submitting the application must have their place of residence and main focus of work in Germany. The projects within the framework of #TakeHeart must be implemented in Germany.
