

RECHERCHFÖRDERUNG - REGULATIONS

Please Note! This is a translation of the valid regulations and is meant only to help in the orientation and understanding of those, for whom German is not a first language. Only the regulations in the original German version apply. There is no guarantee for the correctness and completeness of any translated information.

Basic Information on the Application Process

01. The Rechercheförderung is aimed at nationally noteworthy independent performing artists as well as curators working in the independent performing arts. The scholarship-like support promotes open-resulted artistic research and conceptual development of artistic projects, as well as projects that serve artistic further education and qualification. The scholarship-like grant aims at further artistic development in the current situation. Projects can come from all areas of the performing arts and must be documented in the form of a factual report.

02. The grant of 7.500 € will be awarded for a period of three consecutive months.

03. Applicants must be able to prove that they have been continuously involved in significant artistic or curatorial positions in publicly funded performing arts projects over the last three years, or alternatively, that they have been involved in international guest performances or productions in their own artistic work.

04. Natural persons applying must have their residence and main focus of work in the Federal Republic of Germany. Projects must be realized in Germany. Artistically justified deviations from this provision must be described in the application.

Deadlines and Application

05. Applications are to be submitted

- in the first application round by 10.10.2021

30.09.2022 (application deadline: 01.02.2022)

31.12.2022 (application deadline: 01.06.2022)

30.04.2023 (application deadline: 11.09.2022)

30.06.2023 (application deadline: 15.01.2023)

and completed with a fully submitted proof of use.

Cost and Financing Plan

11. The cost and financing plan is an integral part of the online application form. An additional cost and financing plan does not have to be submitted.

12. The fund supports research projects with the amount of 7,500 euros. Co-financing with other funds is excluded.

Exclusion Criteria / Conditions

13. Funding is precluded if the research project has already begun before the funding commitment.

14. A funding application for a project may only be made once and to a single funding program of the Fonds Darstellende Künste; parallel applications are not permitted. Applicants may submit only one project per funding round.

15. A project or application that has been previously submitted and rejected may not be re-submitted.

16. A project may not already be funded by another grant of the NEUSTART KULTUR program.

17. Those who have already received a Rechercheförderung within the framework of #TakeHeart in the year of application (with reference to the date of the application deadline) are excluded from submitting an application.

18. Those who have already received a Residenzförderung within the framework of #TakeHeart in the same year of application (with reference to the date of grant notice), who receive a residency grant in the research period applied for, or who are applying for a residency grant at the same time are excluded from submitting an application.

These regulations are valid from August 01, 2022 and are based on the valid German regulations and overall funding principles of the BKM, the Federal Government Commissioner for Culture and the Media, for the program NEUSTART KULTUR: #TakeHeart - Planning security and further development in the nationwide independent performing arts. Subject to change without notice.
